Garrett Motion Inc. Hosts Investor Conference, Highlights Business and Technology Growth Drivers

MORRIS PLAINS, N.J., Sept. 6, 2018 – Garrett Motion Inc., the planned Honeywell spin-off of its Transportation Systems business, will host its investor conference in New York City today, led by President and Chief Executive Officer Olivier Rabiller.

As part of the conference, Rabiller and other members of the Garrett leadership team will lead presentations highlighting Garrett’s market and technology leadership, world-class operations, and financial strength. Garrett's leaders will also provide interactive demonstrations of the company's cutting-edge technologies and solutions for an industry that is rapidly transforming its user experience with advanced automotive powertrains, including the development of electrified and connected vehicles.

"I am excited to update the investment community on the strong position Garrett will have in the automotive industry following our planned spin-off from Honeywell at the end of this quarter," Rabiller said. "We have positioned our brand as 'Garrett - Advancing Motion' because we have a broad portfolio of products that incorporate breakthrough technologies and best-in-class global manufacturing capabilities to grow our global market leadership amid accelerating industry tailwinds, including the emergence of electrified powertrains. We will have an attractive financial profile, and long track record of operational excellence. As a stand-alone company, Garrett will continue to be a driving force within the industry, as evidenced by our introduction of leading software solutions that monitor vehicle performance and health and offer state-of-the-art cybersecurity."

Garrett is a global leader in turbocharger technologies with a 60-year history of innovation and best-in-class engineering capabilities for a broad range of engine types across global automobile, truck and other vehicle markets. Garrett has approximately 1,400 issued and pending patents, approximately 7,500 employees, and a broad customer base that includes nearly all the world's top passenger and commercial vehicle manufacturers. Garrett's 2017 sales were approximately $3.1 billion across 160 countries.

Presentation materials and webcast information for the Garrett Investor Conference, including a replay of the webcast following the event, will be available at www.honeywell.com/investor.

It is anticipated that when-issued trading on the New York Stock Exchange in Garrett Motion Inc. common stock will begin on or about Monday, September 17. On Monday, October 1 Garrett common stock will begin regular-way trading on the NYSE under the symbol, “GTX.”
